What is a complete flower? - Quora Flowers is a defining moment in time, and though it is a compilation [a point that I could certainly argue, as the album was not made up entirely of previously released material], it's an album that should be considered on its own merits, one that should be given serious consideration, one that shows just how good the Rolling Stones were at writing ultra-dynamic singles during those heady times. The Rolling Stones - Flowers | Releases | Discogs Mapplethorpe Flora: The Complete Flowers, Phaidon He also remembers the beginning of the end, when Mapplethorpe upped his work rate in response to a foreboding sense of mortality. “Suspecting the worst, Robert sped up the quantity and quality of his work to express his soul and build a legacy of more than 120,000 pictures,” Fritscher writes.
