Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Stars Oct 06 2020 Following on from the terrific success of A Wayne in a Manger, Gervase Phinn has collected together from his bestselling Dales books his favourite stories about children, and included some poems from his popular Puffin poetry books. In this humorously illustrated book, the stories have one thing in common - the wonderfully funny (and usually innocent) things that children say. Whether they are stories about children who cannot read very well but know the names of all the breeds of sheep or children who are more privileged (coming to school in a Wolls-Woyce), they are simply delightful. This heart-warming book will not only enchant you, it will make you look at life through a child's eyes - and that's quite a special thing.

inspirational and spiritually uplifting. This story is recommended for children ages 2-6 years of age, but will be loved by all.

Twinkle Dec 08 2020 Penny Pasketti is determined to help her new friend, Little Star, make it back home to the sky. Penny Pasketti stared into space and pretended the stars were her friends. She imagined that every twinkle was a smile or a secret or some such wonderful thing. Suddenly, a shooting star lands in her garden, and in a twinkle the night is filled with friendship and fun. Eventually it is time for Little Star to go home - and for Penny to go to bed - but how do you make a star fall up? One resourceful little girl comes up with a plan . . . and we find she's not the only one with a little smile and a wonderful great big secret. Nick Bland's luminous artwork brings this charming story to life. With an ending that all is right in the world, it's a perfect bedtime story to get little ones and stars alike tucked in for the night.

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, I Know Exactly What You Are Dec 20 2021 Two siblings going to bed describe what stars really are--giant balls of hot, dense gas millions of miles from the Earth--in a book that examines constellations, atmospheric turbulence, and black holes.
