This 43-chapter text with excerpted (in the language of the court) cases is designed to make business law and legal environment exciting and interesting for the reader. The object of this book is to provide teachers and students not only with a textbook dealing with the principal topics in the field of human rights, but also with teaching suggestions, syllabuses, bibliographies, and case studies. Based on the first half of the longtime market-leader BUSINESS LAW: TEXT AND CASES by Clarkson/Miller/Cross, this paperback text offers an affordable solution for the first course in a business law series, often a requirement for business majors. It delivers an ideal blend of classic black letter law and contemporary cases. The text's strong student orientation makes the law accessible, interesting, and relevant, with cases that represent the latest developments. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version. "The Thirteenth Edition incorporates the latest legal developments, from United States Supreme Court decisions to state-level legislation. It also includes nearly thirty new and updated features and more than twenty new cases from 2019 and 2020, dozens of new Examples and Case Examples, along with an extensive array of exhibits, Focus Questions, margin definitions, and case problems." - Preface Prepared by Roger LeRoy Miller, Institute for University Studies, Arlington, Texas, and William Eric Hollowell, Member of U.S. Supreme Court Bar, Minnesota State Bar, and Florida State Bar. Includes chapter objectives, key points covered in the text, chapter introduction, chapter outline, true-false questions, fill-in questions, multiple-choice questions, short essay problems, issue spotters, and answers to all but the essay questions. The answers to the essay questions are in the Instructor's Manual. This text provides the legal credibility, authoritativeness, and comprehensiveness of a traditional business law book, while also offering the visual appeal and student friendly features students are used to seeing in books for many of their other courses. Though the text is "fun" for students to read, it does not accomplish this at the expense of important information - it goes into the necessary detail to completely explain law topics. The book truly offers an instructor the best of both worlds - a credible business law source, which students will be motivated to read. Its magic and the cornerstone of its widespread success is in this ability to appeal to both instructors and students without being mutually exclusive. It also offers the most comprehensive teaching and learning support package on the market, with something to fit many different instructional or learning styles – a reflection of West Legal Studies in Business's continual commitment to partnership, leadership, and innovation in providing the highest quality materials available for Business Law instructors and students. This text explicitly meets the AACSB curriculum requirements. The study of ancient law has blossomed in recent years. In English alone there have been dozens of studies devoted to classical Greek and Roman law, to the Roman legal codes, and to the legal traditions of the ancient Near East among many other topics. Legal documents written on papyrus began to be published in some abundance by the end of the nineteenth century; but even after substantial publication history, legal papyri have not received due attention from legal historians. This book blends the two usually distinct juristic scholarly traditions, classical and Egyptological, into a coherent presentation of the legal documents from Egypt from the Ptolemaic to the late Byzantine periods, all translated and accompanied by expert commentary. The volume will serve as an introduction to the rich legal sources from Egypt in the later phases of its ancient history as well as a tool to compare legal documents from other cultures.

BUSINESS LAW: TEXT AND EXERCISES, 3e captures business law in a straightforward, practical manner. Students explore key topics with real business implications without the burden of excessive detail. Hypothetical examples are used for illustration rather than real court cases. Focussing on money and banking, this text provides an integrated coverage of topics that are important to these fields in the 21st century. Comprehensive and authoritative, yet reader-friendly, Clarkson/Miller/Cross' BUSINESS LAW: TEXT AND CASES, 15E blends classic black letter law with cutting-edge coverage of contemporary issues and cases.
